

Fellows.

Nominated by peers and recognized for distinguished achievement, dedication to the legal profession, commitment to the organized bar and service to the public, Fellows of The New York Bar Foundation represent one percent of New York State attorneys. As Foundation ambassadors, they exemplify the spirit of caring and sharing by demonstrating their belief that the practice of law is a helping profession.

Lawyers caring.
Lawyers sharing.

THE FELLOWS OF THE NEW YORK BAR FOUNDATION

Election into membership in the Fellows is evidence of professional distinction recognizing outstanding achievement and dedication to the legal profession and constitutes a professional honor.

The Fellows support the charitable and educational work of The Foundation on behalf of the profession and public. Many of the most distinguished lawyers and judges in New York State are Fellows.

Fellows support is integral to The Foundation's work in facilitating the delivery of legal services, improving the administration of justice, advancing legal research and education, promoting professional competence and ethics, and increasing public understanding of the law.

Membership in the Fellows involves a charitable contribution to The New York Bar Foundation of a minimum of $200 annually. Life membership is attained upon reaching a contribution level of $2,000 by payment of a minimum of $200 or more per year until contributions total $2,000, or full payment.

Contributions to The New York Bar Foundation are tax-deductible, as permitted by law. Speak to a Fellow or call The Foundation at 518-487-5650 for more information.